Preface

نحمده ونصلى على رسوله الكريم ! اما بعد !

In 1988 I settled in U.K. Then I compiled and published this book in English for English speaking Muslim students. I collected important daily Duaas along with English translation and transliteration in this book according to their necessities.

After some years Janab Abdulqadir Fatiwala, well known writer and translator, re-edited it to make it more useful, easy and attractive according to child psychology.

After that He and his son-in-law Maulana Muhammad Yunus Munshi Falahi translated this book in Gujarati, Hindi and Urdu languages. so, now it is available in four languages and got great welcome and popularity in western countries as wel as in India.

Most of Maktabs included this book in their syllabus.

May Allaah, accept and make it a perpetual reward. Aameen.

You know all and I know not, You are the knower of all that is hidden. O Allaah ! if in Your knowledge, this matter be good for my faith, my livelihood and the consequences of my affairs in the world and the hereafter then ordain it for me and make it easy for me and bless me therein, But if, in Your knowledge, this matter be bad for my faith, my livelihood and the consequences of my affairs in the world of the hereafter then turn it away from me and turn me away therefrom and ordain for me the good wherever it be and cause me to be pleased therewith.

[82] SALAATUT-TASBEEH صلاة التسبيح

Among the optional prayers, this prayer is given great eminence.

Hazarat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Radhiyallahu anhuma) reports that

The Messenger of Allaah (peace and blessings be upon him) said to his uncle Abbaas ibne Abdul Muttalib (Radhiyallahu anhu)

"Shall I not give a gift ?
Shall I grant you a blessing ?

Shall I inform you of a great benefit ?
Shall I give you something, which if you do,
Allaah will forgive you all your sins,
future and past, old and new,
committed by mistake or knowingly,
Small and big, committed in secret or openly ?

What you have to do is offer four rak`ah of optional prayers in the following way :

- In every rak`ah after the Al-Hamd and Surah and while yet standing, recite the third Kalimah FIFTEEN times.
- Then in the bowing, ruku, TEN times.
- Then standing up after the bow, qauma, TEN times.
- Then in each prostration 10 times. (Total 20 times)
- And in between the two prostrations TEN times.
- And sitting up after the second prostration (before getting up for the next Rak`ah,) TEN times;
- Seventy-five times per rak`ah.
- Three-hundred times in all."

Then, He said,

- "If possible, offer this prayer once every day;
- If you cannot, offer it once on Fridays,
- If this is not possible, offer it once a month,
- If this too is not possible, offer it once a year,
- And if even this is not possible, offer it once in your Lifetime." ('Ibne Majaa', 'Tirmizi', 'Aboo Daawud')

- Hazarat Abbaas (Radhiyallahu anhu) used to offer this prayer every Friday and.
- Aboo Jauzan Ta-i (Rahmatullaahi alayhi) used to come to the mosque every day as soon as the azaan for the noon prayers was called and would offer it by the time the jamaat stood up for the obligatory prayers.
- Hazarat Abdul Aziz bin abee Radad (Rahmatullaahi alayhi) held that,

  "He who wanted paradise should hold on firmly to Salaatut-Tasbeeh."
- According to Aboo Usmaan Teri (Rahmatullaahi alayhi),

  "There is nothing better than Salaatut-Tasbeeh to keep away troubles and sorrow."

The Niyyah

- "My niyyah is four rak`aat of Salaatut-Tasbeeh for Allaah Ta`ala, facing the Qiblah."

Propositions regarding Salaatut-Tasbeeh

[A] No specific Surah is prescribed; according to some Ahaadeeth, there should be atleast twenty Verses.

[B] The counting should not be done orally (because this would disturb the prayer) but by pressing one of the fingers, wherever it may be.

[C] If the recital is forgotten, the count should be made up in the next part, but never in between prostrations or during the quama, not after the first and third rak`ah, but after the second or fourth rak`ah.

Benefit

[1] This prayer may be offered any time except during the Makrooh times for salaat.

[2] It is better to offer it after the sun begins to decline.

[3] It is better to recite complete third Kalimah, as belowe according to some Traditions.

سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ وَلَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَاللّٰهُ اَكْبَرُ وَلَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ اِلَّا بِاللّٰهِ الْعَلِيِّ الْعَظِيْمُ

SUBHAANAL LAAHI WAL HAMDULILLAAHI WA LAA ILAAHA ILLAL LAAHU WALLAAHU AKBAR, WA LAA HAWLA WALAA QUWWATA ILLAA BILLAA HIL ` ALIY YIL AZEEM

Glory be to Allaah. All praise be to Allaah. There is none worthy of worship besides Allaah and Allaah is the Greatest. There is no power and might except from Allaah, The Most High, The Great.

[4] During the bow, Ruku, SUBHAANA RABBIYAL AZEEM should be recited first and then the Third Kalimah.

[5] During the prostration, Sajdaah, SUBHAANA

RABBIYAL A`ALAA should be recited first and then the Third Kalimah.

[6] After second and fourth rak`ah, in sitting position (Q'adah) the Third Kalimah should be recited before At-Tahiyyaat (Tashahhud).

Another way to recite Salaatut-Tasbeeh

- Recite the Third Kalimah 15 (fifteen) times after Thanaa (See No. : 21) but before Al Hamd (i,e. between Thanaa and Al Hamd)
- Then 10 (ten) times after Al Hamd and Surah.
- The rest as stated above.
- If the latter procedure is followed there will be no need to recite the Third Kalimah after the first and third rak`ah nor before At Tahiyyaat (Tashahhud) in the second and fourth rak'ah.

[because the seventy five (75) times will have been completed at the end of the second prostrations of every rak`ah]

Proposition

If, for any reason, the need arises for a sahw prostrations (an extra prostrations required after concluding the prayer because of forgetting wajib), the Third Kalimah should not be recited in it, but if the count is missed, the Third Kalimah may be recited in it.
